Hiking in the Yukon

Feel the solitude, the vastness and the peacefulness. Enjoy being alone with the incomprehensible magnitude.

The area of the South Canol Road offers fantastic hiking possibilities. We guide you on lonesome Indian and trapper trails through forests, past rivers and lakes and experience together the breathtaking views of the expanse of the Yukon.

The daily flat-rate fee for a guided hike in the area of the South Canol Road costs CAD 100. Included are:

- transfer
- competent German and English speaking guides
- food and drink (without alcoholic drinks)

We can of course organize for you and accompany you on hikes whose point of departure are somewhere other than the South Canol Road. We take our time to plan your desired route for you.

Combination Tours Canoe - Hiking

You will enjoy a wilderness canoe trip as well as a multiple day hiking trip through the beauty of the Yukon. Between the trips you can relax in our cabin.
